POST-PRODUCTION REVIEW

Mark the shot.
Settle the note.

Vornax Cue Sheet

Timecoded review for independent post-production teams.

NIGHT SERVICE / FICTIONAL FOOTAGE

A note needs a frame.

“Please lower the light” leaves the editor searching for the shot.

NIGHT SERVICE / DOORWAY EXTERIOR

A MORE USEFUL CUE

01:02:14:08

Colour

Bring the doorway practical down slightly and retain the warm spill.

A FICTIONAL EXAMPLE

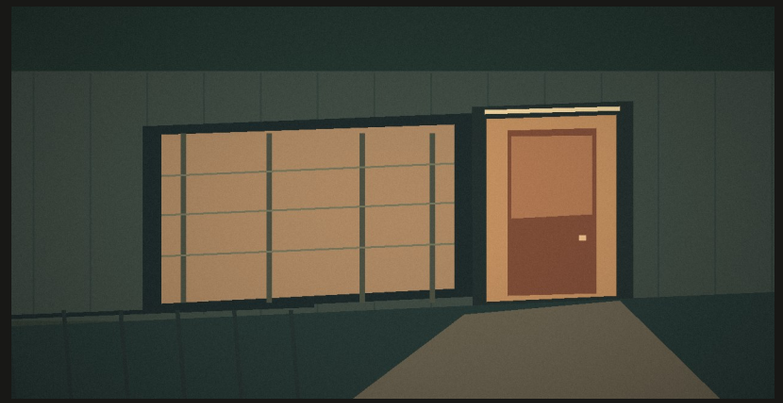

Three shots, one sequence.

The local storyboard spans 36 seconds at 24 frames per second.

Requested change

Bring the doorway practical down slightly and retain the warm spill.

The producer closes the loop.

Return to a numbered cue, inspect its frame and choose the review status.

CUE	TIMECODE	DEPARTMENT	REQUESTED CHANGE	STATUS
01	01:02:05:12	Picture edit	Trim the opening hold before the streetlights enter frame.	Open
02	01:02:14:08	Colour	Bring the doorway practical down slightly and retain the warm spill.	Addressed
03	01:02:27:03	Subtitles	Check subtitle clearance above the platform edge.	Open

Open	New cues open automatically when the editor adds them. The producer can reopen a cue for further work.
Addressed	After checking the cut, the producer marks the requested fix as addressed.
Approved	After checking the result, the producer approves the cue for handover.

Carry the decisions into the edit.

CSV export preserves each cue, its location and its review status.
